Welcome to ▶ young adulthood.

Life has its challenges and it is everyone's responsibility to prepare our youth to become responsible young adults.

Parents, Guardians, family, educators, and community are all supporting roles
to educate you the young people. As you move another step towards independence you will encounter people in your life who are trying to support you by educating, encouraging, financially contributing, motivating and socially guiding you. There is only one of you in this world and we are excited for all the potential that you bring to our community. As a supporting role, we (as in adults) are hoping that you live a life filled with family, friends, adventure and life long learning to live out your dreams. Embrace your new challenges and look at them as a helping hand to achieving your goals.

High School

What to expect:

All students will be faced with more responsibilities which include:

*getting to and from classes within a five minute time limit;

*only four subjects in a semester which there are only two semesters per year; *lates and absences will require late slips or parental absence notes;

*forty hours of Community Service are required to be completed in order to graduate;

*walk to and from designated bus stops which can be up to 1.5 kms from your home address;

* communicate with the Secondary Student Liaison Worker of school organized and sanctioned extra curricular activities that you joined that require transportation and fees. Ie. Clubs, teams, academic field trip etc... Communicate by calling and leaving a message, email or talk directly. Contact must be made in advance to ensure payment and transportation arrangements.

Vision Statement:
Working together to inspire success.
